 16 curement and procurement-related expenses. Amounts
 17 available for procurement and procurement-related ex-18 penses in each such account shall be reduced by the 19 amount allocated to such account. For the purposes of this 20 paragraph, the definition of "procurement" includes all 21 stages of the process of acquiring property or services, be-22 ginning with the process of determining a need for a prod-
 23 uct or service and ending with contract completion and 24 closeout, as specified in 41 U.S.C. 403(2).

25 Notwithstanding the limitation on the availability of

1 aeronautics and technology”, or “Mission support” by this
2 appropriations Act, when any activity has been initiated
3 by the incurrence of obligations for construction of facili-
4 ties as authorized by law, the amount available for such 5 activity shall remain available until expended. This provi-

21 nautics and Space Administration under which the Admin-
22 istration would be required to substantially amortize
23 through payment or reimbursement such contractor in-
24 vestment, unless an appropriations Act specifies the lease
25 or contract pursuant to which such facilities are to be con-

1   structed or leased or such facility is otherwise identified
2   in such Act. The Administrator may authorize such facil-
3   ity lease or construction, if he determines, in consultation
4   with the Committees on Appropriations, that deferral of 5   such action until the enactment of the next appropriations
6   Act would be inconsistent with the interest of the Nation
7   in aeronautical and space activities.

8       The unexpired balances of prior appropriations to 9   NASA for activities for which funds are provided under 10  this Act may be transferred to the new account established
11  for the appropriation that provides funds for such activity
12  under this Act. Balances so transferred may be merged
13  with funds in the newly established account and thereafter
14  may be accounted for as one fund to be available for the 15  same purposes and under the same terms and conditions.

16       The fourth proviso in the paragraph under the heading
17   “Science, space, and technology education trust fund” in

19   Independent Agencies Appropriations Act, 1989 (Public 20   Law 101–404, 102 Stat. 1014, 1028) is amended by striking
21   out “for a ten-year period” and inserting in lieu thereof
